

Eng. Erick Ohaga

BIO DATA

Eng. Ohaga is currently an ordinary member of the IEK Council 2018/2020. Currently he is serving as vice chair, of the Membership Committee, a member of Capacity Building and Mentorship Committee, a member of the Electrical Interviewing Panel, Chair of YEC committee. In 2016/2018 he served as member of YEC of the Institution of Engineers of Kenya (IEK) both at the council and at the Western Branch. He has served in the IEK council for 4 years since 2014 as YEC committee member. He is a corporate member of the Institution of Engineers of Kenya and a professional Engineer with Engineers Board of Kenya. He has participated in Professional Interview Preparation (PIP) as a Resource Person. He has participated in the IEK preparation for Interview for Young Engineers/Women Engineers Chapter as a presenter and a mentor and IEK organized career talks in JKUAT, Moi University, Masinde Muliro University, University of Nairobi, and Kenyatta University. He represented IEK in the FAEO/UNESCO/African Engineering Week in Rwanda and Nigeria as a paper presenter in 2017 and 2018 respectively. Participated in all the IEK annual conferences as a paper presenter and articles published in Kenya Engineer of 2018, 2017 and 2015. He holds MSc in Nuclear Engineering (KINGS), Masters of Business Administration, BSc. in Electrical/Electronic Engineering and post graduate diploma in Project Planning and management. Currently he is the county Business Manager at Kenya Power. He has over 15 years vast experience in design, construction, operations, maintenance and planning of power systems.