

Name:	Eng. Jane Mutulili
Candidature	President
Current Employer	La Femme Engineering Services Ltd. Managing Director
Professional qualifications	Consulting Engineer, EBK; Fellow, IEK; B.Sc. Civil Engineering, UON 1990 MSc. CBIS, Sunderland university, UK
IEK positions	1 st and 2 nd Vice President; Ordinary Council Member Committees: Membership and Functions Committee; Women's Chapter, Conference Committee,
Notable achievements	Successful delivery of the 2 nd IEK Strategic Plan. Increased interview panelists hence increased interview opportunities; Increased visibility for Engineers
Manifesto	As the President of the Institution, my team and I will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increase opportunity for Engineers in the Country by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Ensuring Certain jobs are a preserve of local Engineers</li> <li>ii. Ensuring the 40% local content is observed on all internationally awarded contracts</li> <li>iii. Ensure that the 30% Special Group is realised especially our young engineers</li> <li>iv. Lobbying for payments to Engineers for the Services rendered is done within the stipulated period</li> <li>v. Provide Structured training for Graduating Engineers to enable them to transition to Professional Engineers</li> </ol> </li> <li>• Visibility for Engineers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>vi. Activities to ensure Engineer interact</li> <li>vii. Visibility to the outside world by offering engineering solutions to the country</li> <li>viii. Entrenching the engineer especially in the county levels so that all engineering activities are undertaken by the engineer</li> </ol> </li> </ul>