

Name:	Eng. Margaret Ngotho Ogai
Candidate for	Honorary Secretary
Current Employer	General Manager, Planning & Programming, Kenya Roads Board
Professional qualifications	Consulting Engineer, Engineers Board of Kenya Fellow, Institution of Engineers of Kenya B.Sc. Civil Engineering, University of Nairobi, 1990 MBA (Procurement), University of Nairobi, 2014 Post Graduate Diploma, Public Transportation, UITP (ongoing) Highways engineer with experience gained in private (10 years) and public sectors (19 years).
IEK positions	Ordinary Council Member (2018 - 2020). Committees served: Vice Chairperson Strategic Planning, Vice Chairperson Functions, Member of Capacity Building & Mentorship, Chairperson of Women Engineers Chapter, and Coordinator for IEK Conferences.
Notable achievements	Successful delivery of the 2nd IEK Strategic Plan (2019 - 2023). Facilitated various capacity building & mentorship and Women Engineers events. Leveraged industry linkages and successfully mobilized sponsorship and participation for various IEK events.
Manifesto	As Hon. Secretary of IEK, I commit to protect the interests of engineers and serve with dedication, integrity and humility. I will implement IEK Strategic Plan. Key priorities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Increase local content in engineering services 2. Raise transition rate for registration of Graduate Engineers 3. Make IEK the trusted voice in matters infrastructure and manufacturing 4. Strengthen governance of IEK 5. Promote inclusivity and diversity